

Aunty Collective Memberships

Aunty Collective Art, Culture & Learning Hub addresses the need to reframe our relationship with Western systems in a way that honours the natural agency of Indigenous peoples to work and learn from within our own ways of knowing and being. Here, we enact sovereign creative practices, create art/cultural programming, and host gallery, studio, rental and retail space where Indigenous artists are fairly compensated for their work. Aunty Collective is Indigenous women/Indigequeer-owned and operated. Our Art Culture and Learning Hub supports capacity building and access to authentic, creative, Indigenous practices and commerce platforms. Allies are invited into our Indigenous-rooted space to witness, learn more about and meaningfully support Indigenous lives/stories and creative practices.
