Workshops

AC offers a variety of workshops and is open to sourcing artists for all your workshop needs. We offer small and large group workshops which can be had onsite and/or on location. The following workshops are currently available, and we are working on providing more diverse and custom workshops as well.

- Drum making (elk hide drums with handles in a variety of sizes)
- Rattle making (elk hide rattles)
- Ribbon Skirts
- Moccasin making (a variety of styles depending on the artist)
- Beading (from fringe earrings to flat stitch and everywhere in between)
- Cedar Weaving (local cedar artists)
- Medicine making and teachings (a variety of medicines to choose from)
- Informational sessions anywhere from how to put together an exhibition to how to respectfully work in relationship with Indigenous communities. Our workshops honor and lift up the years of experience AC owners and collective members have working in the Arts/Culture, Education, Child Welfare and Indigenous Governance and administration sectors as well as our roots and cultural teachings.
